

Boxplot

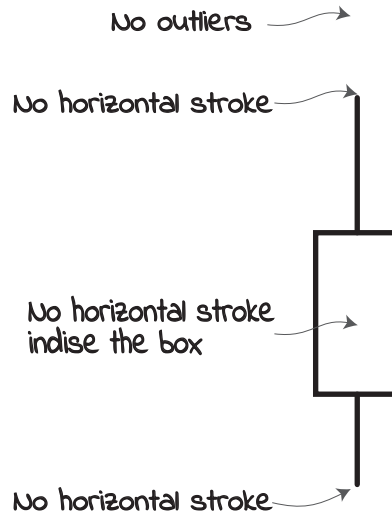

False-Friends

Boxplots

≠

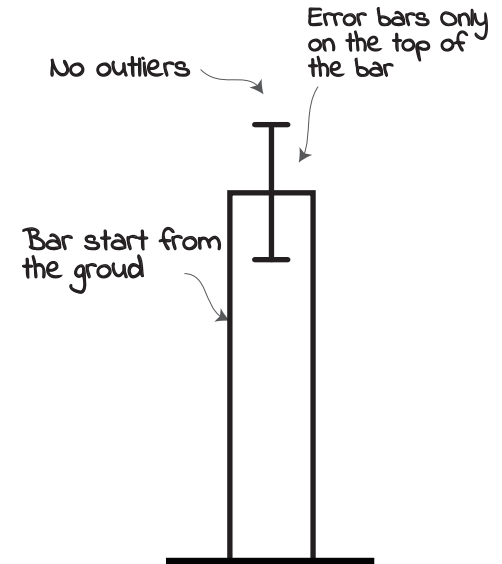

Candlesticks

A candlestick represents the price activity of an asset during a specified timeframe through the use of four main components: the open, close, high and low.

≠

Error bars

Error bars are graphical representations of the variability of data and used on graphs to indicate the error or uncertainty in a reported measurement.